Big Delta, Alaska
Fort Greely, Allen Army Airfield
Missile Defense Avoidance Area

Posted on Friday, October 8, 2004
Updated on Wednesday, July5, 2006

US Army Liaison to the FAA: MSG Johnson, (907)271-5366; email: erik.johnson@faa.gov

Avoid Circling or Loitering above or in the vicinity of the Missile Defense Area while flying along the Richardson and Alaska Highways next to Fort Greely and up to 7nm southeast of the BIG VORTAC.

Request pilots remain
over or within 200 feet North of the Alaska Highway or West of the Richardson Highway.

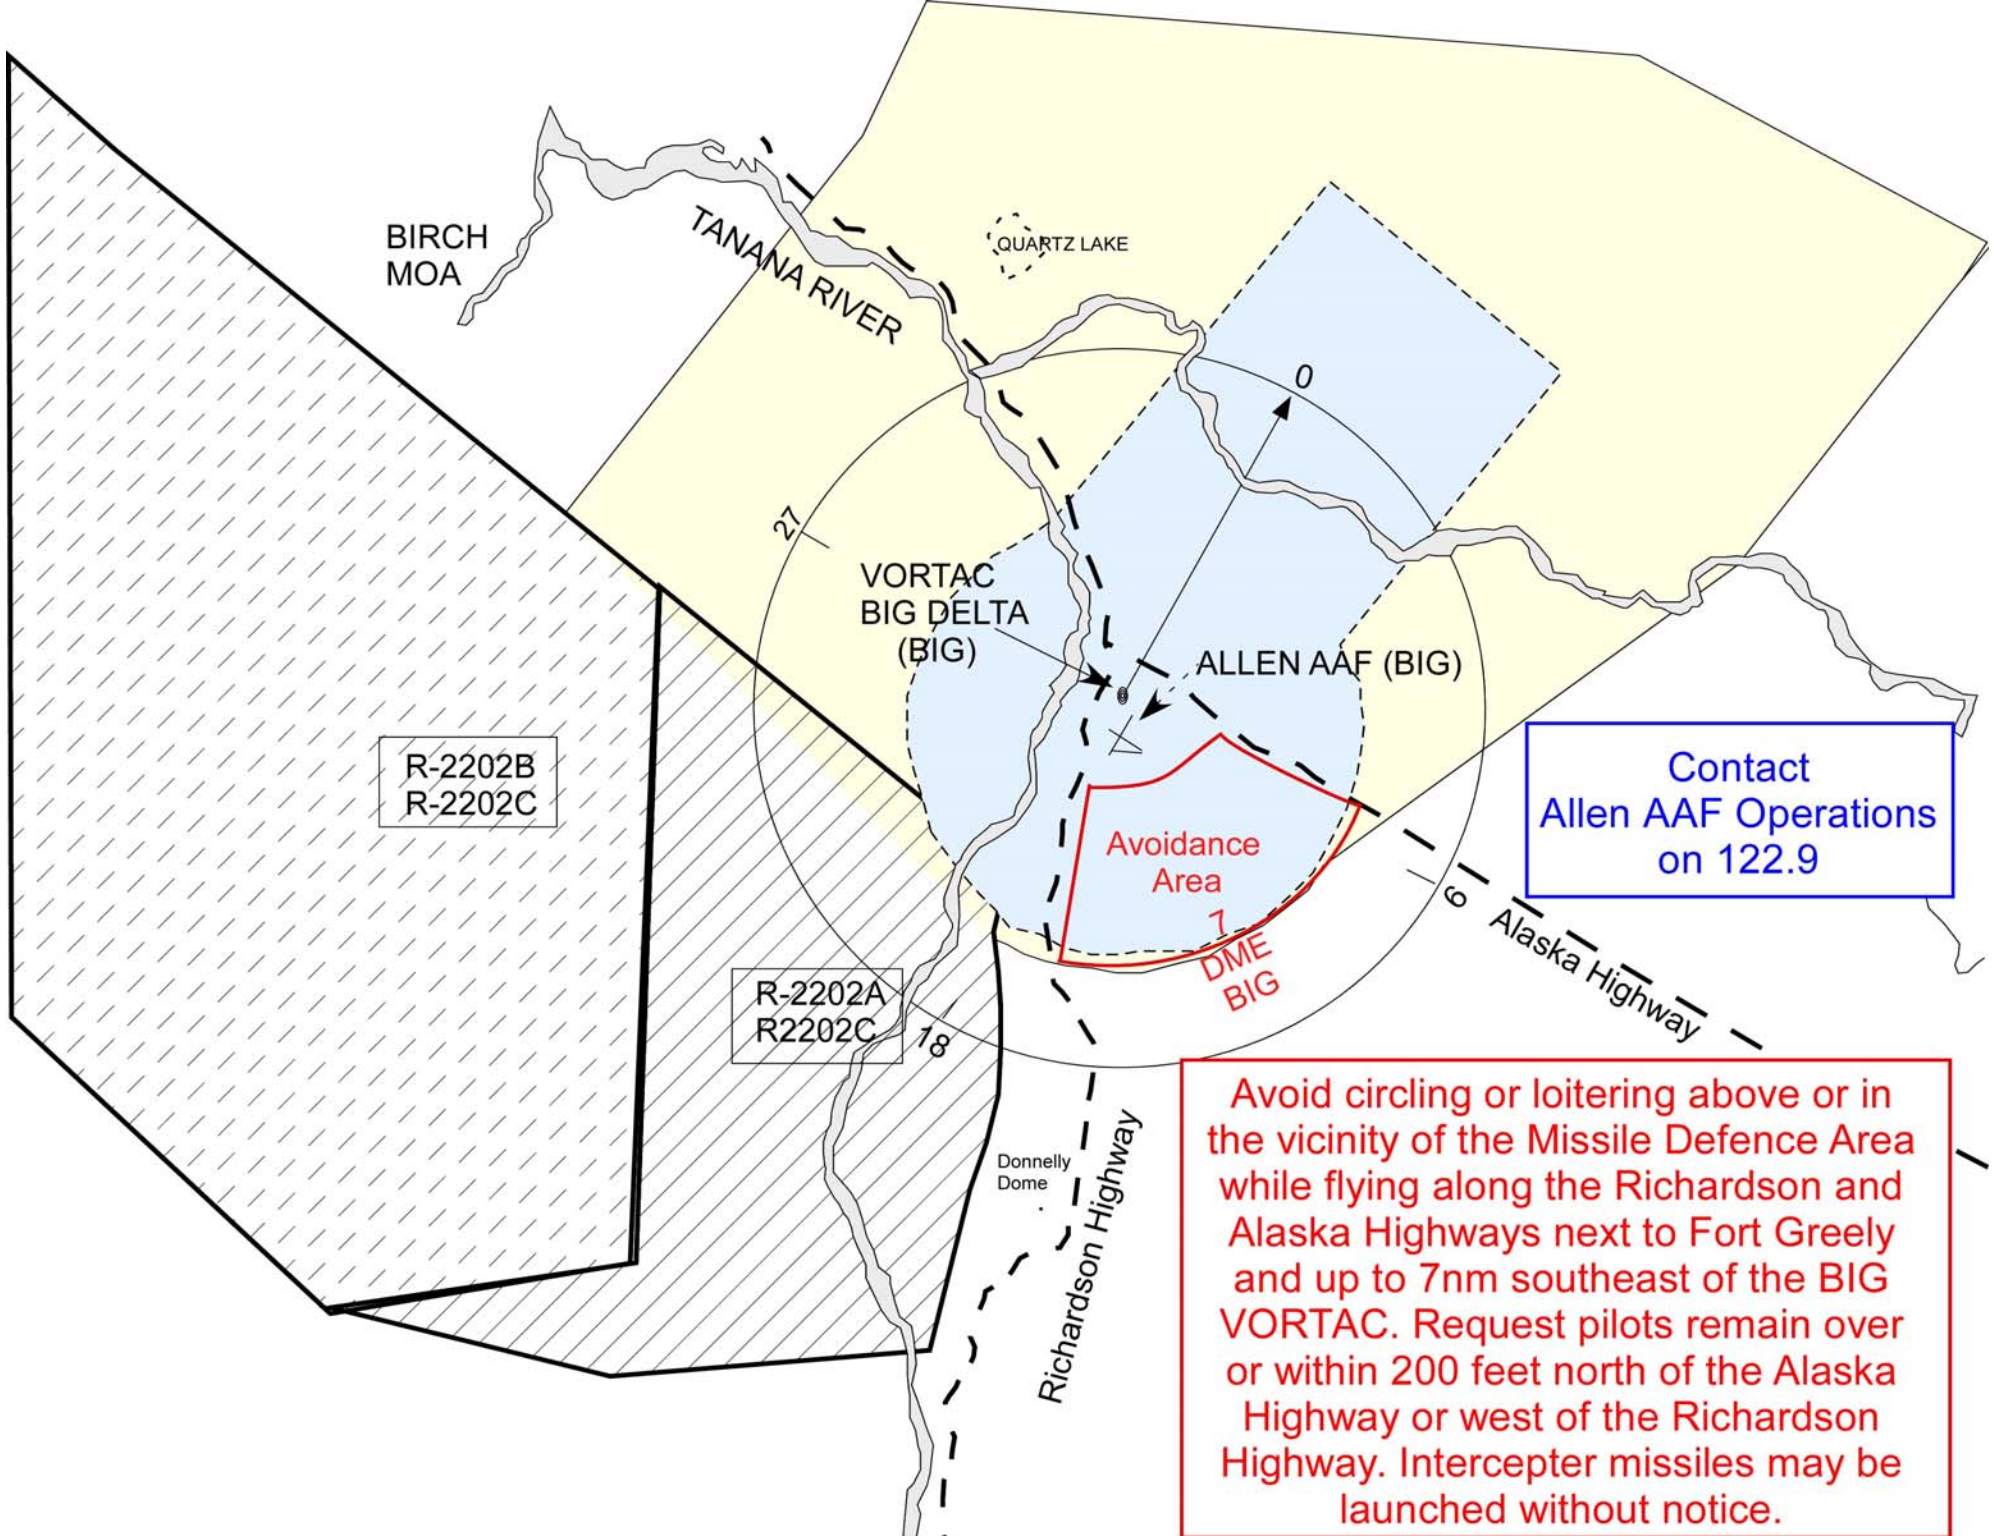
Allen AAF Operations on frequency 122.9.

Interceptor missiles may be launched without notice.



BIRCH
MOA
TANANA RIVER
QUARTZ LAKE
0
27
VORTAC
BIG DELTA
(BIG)
ALLEN AAF (BIG)
R-2202B
R-2202C
Avoidance
Area
7
DME
BIG
6
Alaska Highway
R-2202A
R2202C
18
Donnelly
Dome
Richardson Highway
Contact
Allen AAF Operations on 122.9
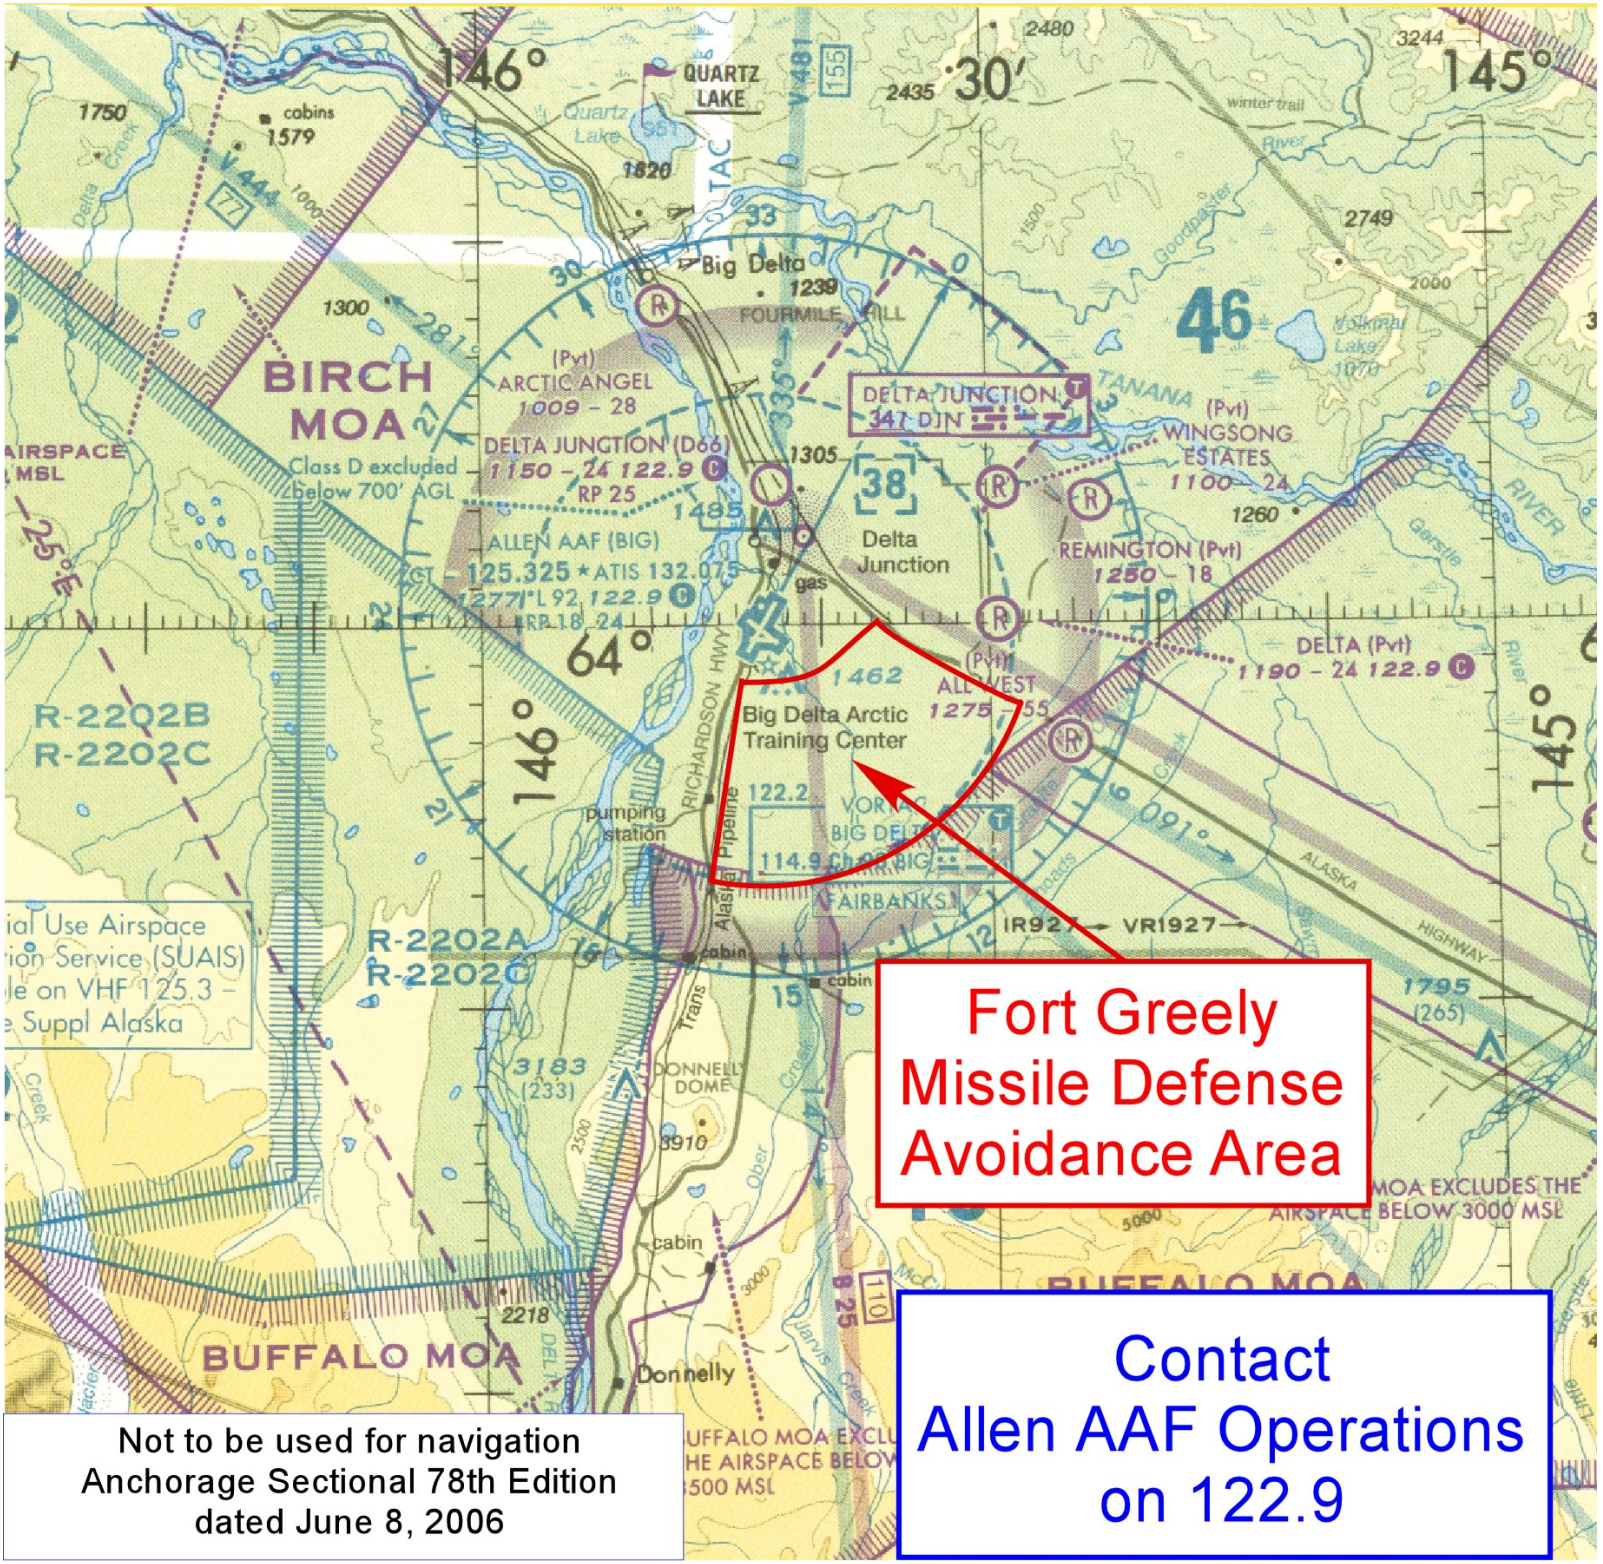
Avoid circling or loitering above or in the vicinity of the Missile Defence Area while flying along the Richardson and Alaska Highways next to Fort Greely and up to 7nm southeast of the BIG VORTAC. Request pilots remain over or within 200 feet north of the Alaska Highway or west of the Richardson Highway. Intercepter missiles may be launched without notice.



Fort Greely Missile Defense Avoidance Area

Contact Allen AAF Operations on 122.9

Not to be used for navigation
Anchorage Sectional 78th Edition
dated June 8, 2006