Air Traffic Control Specialist

Suitability and Security Standards Terminal and En Route Air Traffic Control Positions

Individuals must pass a rigid security/background investigation. The following are types of issues which are reviewed as part of the background/ security check and which may result in a person not being selected for a job as an air traffic controller.

- General or dishonorable military discharge
- Actions or convictions for which there is statutory debarment from Federal employment
- Government loyalty issues
- Evidence of dishonesty in an application or examination process (e.g., falsification of application)
- Drug-related offenses
- Felony offenses
- Firearms or explosives offenses
- Alcohol-related incidents
- Willful disregard of financial obligations
- Derogatory employment terminations
- Patterns and/or combinations of incidents which lead to questions about your behavior and intent

009202.pm