Announcement

Department of Transportation

The Secretary's RAISE Award

Recognizing Aviation and Aerospace Innovation in Science & Engineering

Nominations being accepted through April 8, 2016

The Secretary of Transportation has established the Secretary's RAISE Award to recognize aviation achievement in science and engineering.The DOT will present the RAISE Award to individuals or teams at the high school and university level (undergraduate and graduate) to recognize achievements that have the potential to significantly impact the future of aviation and aerospace.

The full announcement and application details are available in the Federal Register and at www.challenge.gov. Contact Dr. Patricia Watts, FAA Centers of Excellence Program Office, telephone number (609) 485-5043 or e-mail patricia.watts@faa.gov with questions.

For More Information Visit:
www. faa.gov/go/coe
www.dot.gov/office-policy/aviation-policy/secretary-transportations-raise-award