Big Delta, Alaska
Fort Greely, Allen Army Airfield
Missile Defense Avoidance Area

Updated on Tuesday, August 6, 2013

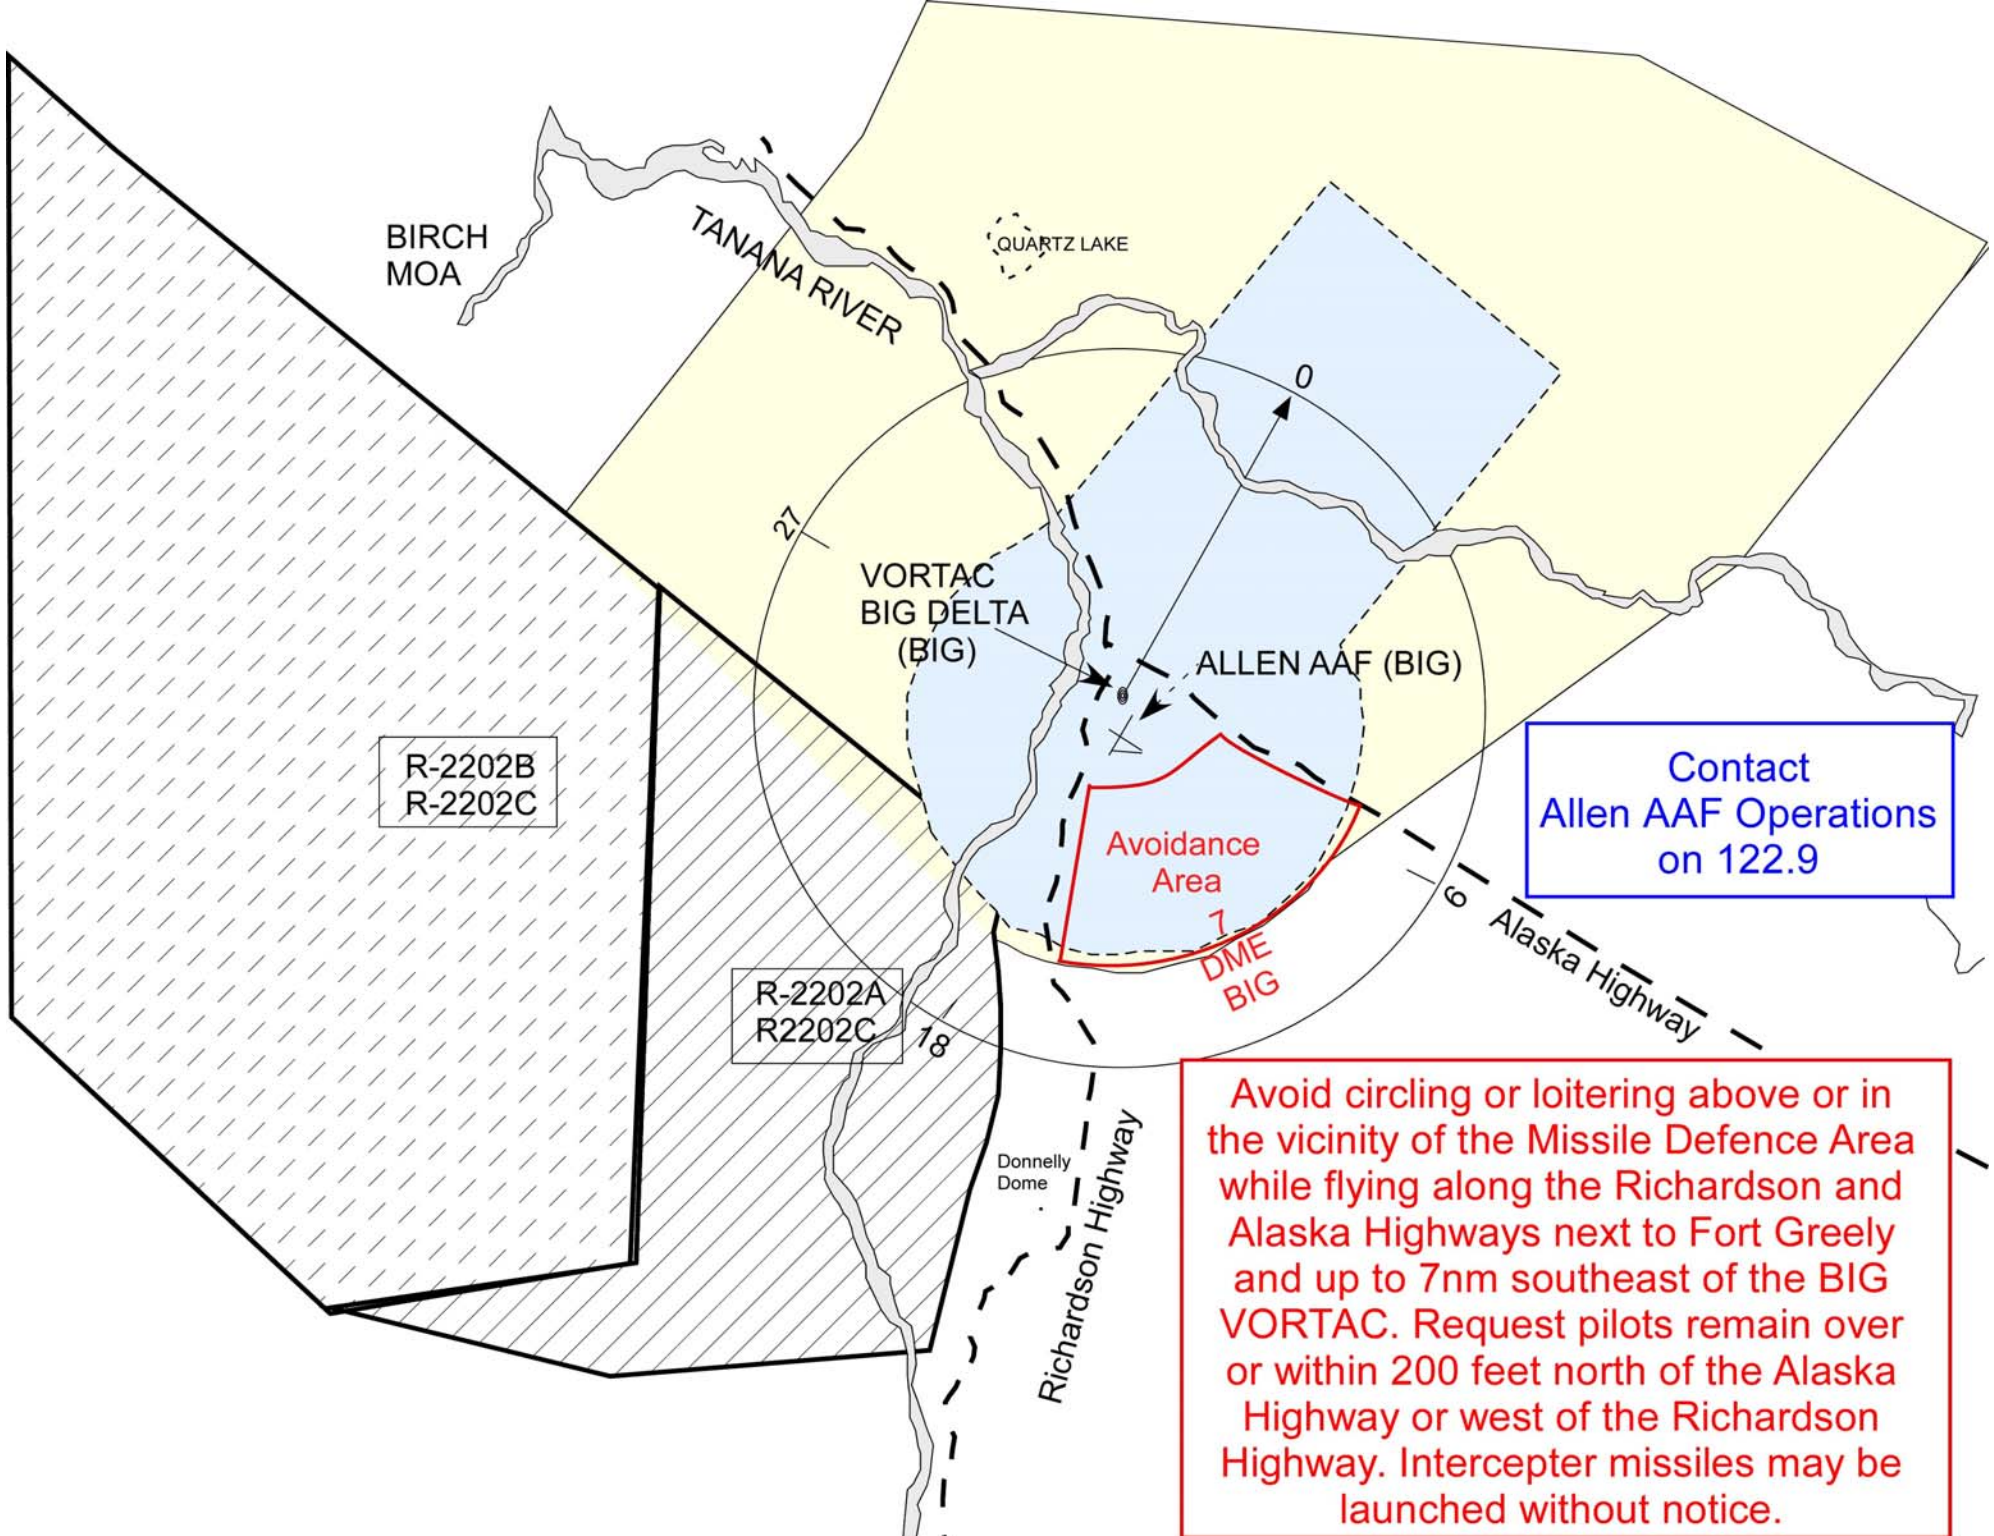
Avoid Circling or Loitering above or in the vicinity of the Missile Defense Area while flying along the Richardson and Alaska Highways next to Fort Greely and up to 7nm southeast of the BIG VORTAC.

Request pilots remain over or within 200 feet North of the Alaska Highway or West of the Richardson Highway.

Allen AAF Operations on frequency 122.9.

INTERCEPTOR MISSLES MAY BE LAUNCHED WITHOUT NOTICE!

US Army Liaison to the FAA: MSG Dave Meeker, (907) 271-5366; email: david.k.meeker@faa.gov



BIRCH
MOA
TANANA RIVER
QUARTZ LAKE
0
27
VORTAC
BIG DELTA
(BIG)
ALLEN AAF (BIG)
R-2202B
R-2202C
Avoidance
Area
7
DME
BIG
6
Alaska Highway
R-2202A
R2202C
18
Donnelly
Dome
Richardson Highway
Contact
Allen AAF Operations on 122.9
Avoid circling or loitering above or in the vicinity of the Missile Defence Area while flying along the Richardson and Alaska Highways next to Fort Greely and up to 7nm southeast of the BIG VORTAC. Request pilots remain over or within 200 feet north of the Alaska Highway or west of the Richardson Highway. Intercepter missiles may be launched without notice.