

FORWARD

As the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration, I hereby approve this Federal Aviation Administration Travel Policy document as the official source of travel regulations for travelers of this agency. This document will be a living document in that as Federal travel regulations and Federal Aviation Administration travel regulations change, this document will be revised accordingly.

This document supercedes all other travel policy currently in effect.

I sign this to be effective this 15th day in Oct, 1998.
