

FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION
AVIATION INSURANCE PROGRAM

APPLICATION FOR FAA WAR RISK INSURANCE

To participate in the FAA Aviation Insurance Premium Program, an air carrier must be a regularly scheduled airline that is actively holding out a schedule to the public. Applications for FAA Aviation war risk insurance are not being accepted at this time from air carriers performing charter operations.

Please complete this form and provide the following information:

- A cover letter explaining the unavailability of commercial war risk insurance
- A copy of your FAA Air Carrier Certificate
- A declaration page (summary of coverage) from your commercial all risk insurance policy
- An aircraft schedule including aircraft type, N-number, serial number, and insured value from your commercial insurance policy schedule
- Cities served by your scheduled flights, and information on where your schedule is published
