SUBJ: Financial Services Organizational Change (ABA)

- 1. Purpose of this Notice. This Notice announces the realignment of the Office of Financial Controls (AFC) within the Office of Financial Services (ABA).
- 2. Audience. This Notice affects everyone who does business with the Office of Financial Controls.
- 3. Where can I Find This Notice? You can find this Notice on the MyFAA Employee Web site: https://employees.faa.gov/tools_resources/orders_notices/. This Notice is available to the public at http://www.faa.gov/regulations_policies/orders_notices/.
- 4. Background. This Notice renames the Office of Financial Controls (AFC) to the Office of Financial Analysis (AFA) to more accurately reflect the mission and functions of this office. It also provides updates to the organizational structure of this office. The AFA Office is organized into four divisions: the Acquisition Oversight Division (AFA-100), the Program Analysis Division (AFA-200), the Business Analysis Division (AFA-300) and the Metrics Division (AFA-400). The mission and functions of AFA and the duties, authorities and responsibilities of its managers remain the same as they were under AFC and are unaffected by the name change.
- 5. Organization Chart. Attached as Appendix A is the Office of Financial Analysis Organization Chart.
- 6. Distribution. This Notice is distributed to the division level in Washington headquarters and field offices.
