

Guidelines for Excluding ASAP Reports

Reports that appear to involve possible criminal activity, substance abuse, controlled substances, alcohol, or intentional falsification are excluded. Upon completion of a subsequent investigation, if it is determined that the event did not involve any of the aforementioned activities, then the FAA office refers the report back to the ERC for a determination of acceptability under the ASAP. Such reports are accepted under the ASAP, provided they otherwise meet the acceptance criteria.