****EMAIL SCAM ALERT!******

March 15, 2016

Dear Customer:

We have just learned that a number of our Overflight Fee customers have recently received an e-mail regarding outstanding payments, or a Delinquency notice that appears to be from the FAA. If the e-mail was received from a .com it is a phishing attempt. If you have received an e-mail, or anything similar, please do not respond to it or provide any information. Please delete the e-mail immediately. Our office will never e-mail you from a .com.

ALL OFFICIAL E-MAILS WILL BE FROM A .GOV.

None of these notices have a telephone number on them, all official notices from my office will have a telephone number. If you are ever unsure of wire details please contact me below and I can verify and assist you further.

Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns. If you ever receive an official looking email or notice that appears to be from the FAA, but are not sure about the legitimacy of the sender, do not hesitate to call me and I will assist you with any concerns. Thank you for your assistance with this very important matter.

Sincerely,

Michelle Leissner
