ORDER

Complainant Federal Aviation Administration has renewed its motion to dismiss Respondent Michael Wendt's appeal. Complainant bases its motion to dismiss on the untimeliness of Respondent's appeal brief. In the alternative, Complainant requests an extension of time to file its reply brief.

Complainant's motion to dismiss due to untimeliness has already been denied in FAA Order No. 93-2, which was served on January 13, 1993. This order granted Respondent an extension of time of 10 days to file his appeal brief.

Although Complainant's motion to dismiss has been denied, its request for an extension of time to file its reply brief is granted. Complainant is granted 30 days from the date of service of this order to file its reply brief.
