CHARTING NOTICE

Date: November 24, 2020
To: Users of FAA Digital Chart Supplement (d-CS) Product
From: Aeronautical Information Services
Subject: Digital Chart Supplement – XML Code Revisions

Starting with the February 25, 2021 effective date, the Digital Chart Supplement product will revise the XML format.

These format revisions do not involve changes in schema, but improved human readability. This change should be of little impact to users.

The sample file available for testing is located here http://aeronav.faa.gov/Chart_Supp/
