Gina McCarthy
Commissioner
Department of Environmental Protection
79 Elm Street
3rd Floor
Hartford, CT 06106

March 14, 2007

Dear Commissioner McCarthy:

In accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), the Council on Environmental Quality (C.E.Q.) implementing regulations, and Federal Administration (FAA) orders, an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) is being prepared to consider the potential environmental impact of air traffic control (ATC) procedural changes in and near the New York/New Jersey/Philadelphia Metropolitan Areas. HNTB Corporation has been retained to assist in the preparation of this EIS. The Proposed Action for the EIS is to redesign the airspace in the New York/New Jersey/Philadelphia Metropolitan Areas. This involves developing new routes and procedures to take advantage of improved aircraft performance and emerging ATC technologies. The Proposed Action does not include any physical changes or development of facilities and therefore no physical alteration to any environmental resource would occur. The Draft EIS in its entirety may be found at http://www.faa.gov/airports_airtraffic/air_traffic/nas_redesign/regional_guidance/eastern_reg/nynjphl_redesign/.

An analysis of potential impacts to 6(f) properties was undertaken as part of the Draft EIS. Since the Proposed Action did not include physical alteration or construction, no physical taking of a 6(f) property would occur. The Proposed Action would result in changes in noise exposure, therefore the potential for constructive use of 6(f) property was considered. To evaluate the potential for impacts to 6(f) properties, a list of 6(f) projects was compiled from the National Parks Service (NPS) website. The list of 6(f) projects was limited to those in counties with significantly noise impacted census blocks. (In accordance with FAA Order 1050.1E an increase in noise exposure of 1.5 DNL or greater resulting in 65 DNL or more was considered a significant noise impact.) All the 6(f) projects were then categorized in the following manner:

- AS – project already studied as part of the land use compatibility or 4(f) analysis.
- NI – project not impacted because its location was outside the significantly impacted census blocks.
- NE – projects not expected to be impacted because of the nature of the project such as game land acquisition (location data was not available for these properties).

Since none of the Airspace Redesign alternatives resulted in significant noise impacts in the State of Connecticut, it was concluded that no 6(f) properties in Connecticut would be converted to non-recreational uses by any of the Airspace Redesign alternatives.

Please provide any local input pertinent to the 6(f) impact analysis of the proposed Airspace Redesign. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best regards,

Based on this analysis, no 6(f) properties were determined to be significantly impacted by noise associated with the Proposed Action Airspace Redesign alternatives. Thus, no 6(f) properties are expected to be converted to non-recreational uses by any of the Airspace Redesign alternatives.

Please confirm the attached list of 6(f) properties located in Bergen County, Essex County, Union County, or in multiple New Jersey counties, which was generated from the NPS website. T. Kevin Burns
Chief
Grants Management Bureau
Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation
Building #1, Empire State Plaza
Albany, NY 12238

March 14, 2007

Dear Mr. Burns:

In accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), the Council on Environmental Quality (C.E.Q.) implementing regulations, and Federal Administration (FAA) orders, an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) is being prepared to consider the potential environmental impact of air traffic control (ATC) procedural changes in and near the New York/New Jersey/Philadelphia Metropolitan Areas. HNTB Corporation has been retained to assist in the preparation of this EIS. The Proposed Action for the EIS is to redesign the airspace in the New York/New Jersey/Philadelphia Metropolitan Areas. This involves developing new routes and procedures to take advantage of improved aircraft performance and emerging ATC technologies. The Proposed Action does not include any physical changes or development of facilities and therefore no physical alteration to any environmental resource would occur. The Draft EIS in its entirety may be found at http://www.faa.gov/airports_airtraffic/air_traffic/nas_redesign/regional_guidance/eastern_reg/nynjphl_redesign/.

An analysis of potential impacts to 6(f) properties was undertaken as part of the Draft EIS. Since the Proposed Action did not include physical alteration or construction, no physical taking of a 6(f) property would occur. The Proposed Action would result in changes in noise exposure, therefore the potential for constructive use of 6(f) property was considered. To evaluate the potential for impacts to 6(f) properties, a list of 6(f) projects was compiled from the National Parks Service (NPS) website. The list of 6(f) projects was limited to those in counties with significantly noise impacted census blocks. (In accordance with FAA Order 1050.1E an increase in noise exposure of 1.5 DNL or greater resulting in 65 DNL or more was considered a significant noise impact.) All the 6(f) projects were then categorized in the following manner:

- AS – project already studied as part of the land use compatibility or 4(f) analysis.
- NI – project not impacted because its location was outside the significantly impacted census blocks.
- NE – projects not expected to be impacted because of the nature of the project such as game land acquisition (location data was not available for these properties).

Based on this analysis, no 6(f) properties were determined to be significantly impacted by noise associated with the Proposed Action Airspace Redesign alternatives. Thus, no 6(f) properties are expected to be converted to non-recreational uses by any of the Airspace Redesign alternatives.

Please confirm the attached list of 6(f) properties located in Bronx County, Queens County, Nassau County, or in multiple New York counties, which was generated from the NPS website. Also, please provide any local input pertinent to the 6(f) impact analysis of the proposed Airspace Redesign. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best regards,

Larry Williamson
Deputy Secretary
Conservation and Engineering
Dept. of Conservation and Natural Resources
P.O. Box 8767
Harrisburg, PA 17105

March 14, 2007

Dear Mr. Williamson:

In accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), the Council on Environmental Quality (C.E.Q.) implementing regulations, and Federal Administration (FAA) orders, an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) is being prepared to consider the potential environmental impact of air traffic control (ATC) procedural changes in and near the New York/New Jersey/Philadelphia Metropolitan Areas. HNTB Corporation has been retained to assist in the preparation of this EIS. The Proposed Action for the EIS is to redesign the airspace in the New York/New Jersey/Philadelphia Metropolitan Areas. This involves developing new routes and procedures to take advantage of improved aircraft performance and emerging ATC technologies. The Proposed Action does not include any physical changes or development of facilities and therefore no physical alteration to any environmental resource would occur. The Draft EIS in its entirety may be found at http://www.faa.gov/airports_airtraffic/air_traffic/nas_redesign/regional_guidance/eastern_reg/nynjphl_redesign/.

An analysis of potential impacts to 6(f) properties was undertaken as part of the Draft EIS. Since the Proposed Action did not include physical alteration or construction, no physical taking of a 6(f) property would occur. The Proposed Action would result in changes in noise exposure, therefore the potential for constructive use of 6(f) property was considered. To evaluate the potential for impacts to 6(f) properties, a list of 6(f) projects was compiled from the National Parks Service (NPS) website. The list of 6(f) projects was limited to those in counties with significantly noise impacted census blocks. (In accordance with FAA Order 1050.1E an increase in noise exposure of 1.5 DNL or greater resulting in 65 DNL or more was considered a significant noise impact.) All the 6(f) projects were then categorized in the following manner:

- AS – project already studied as part of the land use compatibility or 4(f) analysis.
- NI – project not impacted because its location was outside the significantly impacted census blocks.
- NE – projects not expected to be impacted because of the nature of the project such as game land acquisition (location data was not available for these properties).

Based on this analysis, no 6(f) properties were determined to be significantly impacted by noise associated with the Proposed Action Airspace Redesign alternatives. Thus, no 6(f) properties are expected to be converted to non-recreational uses by any of the Airspace Redesign alternatives.

Please confirm the attached list of 6(f) properties located in Delaware County, Pennsylvania, or in multiple Pennsylvania counties, which was generated from the NPS website. Also, please provide any local input pertinent to the 6(f) impact analysis of the proposed Airspace Redesign. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best regards,

Re: NY/NJ/PHL Metropolitan Area Airspace Redesign Environmental Impact Statement (EIS)

Dear Ms. Guzzo:

This letter is in response to your comment letter regarding the NY/NJ/PHL Metropolitan Area Airspace Redesign DEIS. In your letter you concurred with the findings made by the FAA and requested copies of comments relating to New Jersey's historic properties. Enclosed please find a written comment and a transcript regarding three sites in New Jersey; Mount Tabor, Greystone Park Hospital and Water Witch National Historic District. It is noted that none of these sites are within the APE and therefore no Section 106 review for these specific sites was conducted.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me at (703) 824-5123.

I am concerned about the impact that any change in the existing flight patterns would have on 2 National Historic Registry-eligible properties in Parsippany: Mount Tabor - a 1860's camp meeting community, which was established as a quiet peacefull retreat, and is currently a working community with many public parks and significant buildings. I am also concerned about Greystone Park Hospital, a Victorian Mental Hospital which was based on Thomas Kirkbride's theory of "moral treatment" which involved providing patients with a quiet peacefull respite from stress, in a calming setting. This property is still in use as a mental hospital, while some of the older, unused buildings are being reviewed for reuse for non-profits/museums.

I think a 106 review is required for both of these districts. In addition, the flights should be routed in such a way as to avoid very high elevation areas like Mount Tabor, because of the noise impact. I am also concerned about actual damage to the districts from the vibration from low flying planes.

As a homeowner, I am also concerned about possible danger from crashes in high-density areas and noise pollution.

I favor the ocean routing plan-

Monmouth Hills, New Jersey 07732

MR. STEWART: I live in Monmouth Hills which is also known as the Water Witch National Historic District. I'm the president of the association. It's a national landmark neighborhood.

We have a situation that has been ongoing regarding arrivals to Kennedy Airport, to JFK.

We're one of the highest communities on the Eastern seaboard, I think about 400 feet above sea level, and we're next to Sandy Hook.

Sandy Hook is the geographical turning point for planes coming from the ocean which then must execute a dramatic turn for their JFK landing.

When these planes overshoot their turn, they come over our neighborhood. Often at altitudes much lower than 3,000 feet. My daughters have read the numbers and letters on the fuselage of planes passing over our house. The situation occurs maybe two or three times a week.

I would characterize them as panic turns. My father who is a pilot has commented after seeing one of these turns, that guy just cleared out his sinuses.

This is a chronic situation, which was brought to the attention of the FAA in 2001, at this meeting an earlier meeting, and it was determined that there was a problem and step one to remediate it or at least to address it was to place a noise monitor somewhere in the neighborhood to see just how often these events occurred and how dramatically the noise level increased.

I met with a representative from the Port Authority on September 10, 2001. We determined a good location for the noise monitor and the next morning was the terror attacks. So this plan was abandoned.

Now that the redesign of the Airspace is up for discussion again, I've returned in the same capacity as a representative of the community which has since become a national landmark, to bring this situation to the attention of the FAA and any other organizations that feel this is a point worth addressing. It's our opinion that the situation is not just a noise problem, it's potentially a safety problem for the neighborhood, but also for the airlines because planes are very vulnerable in these situations, and, you know, with people more aware of terror threats than they were in 2001. This is something the FAA may want to tweak, and I would add that when one looks at the maps of the current and proposed arrival routes, it does not reflect the fact that a fair number of airplanes deviate from that path and create this dangerous and annoying situation. Thank you.

Community Service building celebrat 10th anniversary serving non-profit

The first six non-profit groups moved into the Community Service Building in Wilmington 10 years ago today; the building is filled with 7 non-profit tenants from throughout Delaware.

The $25 million renovation and construction on the site of two former DuPont Company buildings was designed to provide a low-cost, stable re location for non-profits.

The plan was championed by Peter Morrow, then head of DuPont's corporate philanthropic program, and David Wakefield, executive director of the Longwood Foundation.

"Charities should use their money-raising capability for programs, not rent," Wakefield said.

Rent in the building, which started at $8 per square foot, is set according to what it costs to operate the building plus $2 per square foot for capital improvements. In the past 10 years, rent has risen only 86 cents per square foot. Comparable commercial rates are $22 per square foot and do not include the free parking the Community Service Building provides in its neighboring garage. Rent was kept low partly through energy savings cost. As energy costs rose, building management introduced efficiency measures and the building is the only commercial center in Delaware to perform at the Energy Star efficiency level, according to the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

The building at 100 W. 10th Street in Wilmington is a charter member of the Nonprofit Centers Network and serves as a model for multi-tenant non-profit centers in the country.

FAA AIRSPAC
NY/NJ/PHL Metropolitan Area
Noise Mitigation Meetings

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) has identified the Integrated Airspace Alternative variation with Integrated Control Complex (ICC) as the preferred alternative for this project. This alternative includes the expanded use of terminal separation and a redirecting of departures and arrivals to gain operational efficiencies. This includes alteration of initial departure headings from some airports within the study area.

As part of the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), the FAA is analyzing various measures to mitigate some of the noise impacts created by the preferred alternative. Some of these strategies include changes to the initial departure headings as well as Continuous Descent Approach (CDA) and over the water approaches where operationally feasible. In addition, expanded use of advance technology is being evaluated.

The FAA will host a series of five public information meetings dedicated to providing an understanding of the proposed noise mitigation strategies and how they could be implemented along with the preferred alternative. There will also be an opportunity to comment on the mitigation strategies.

TOWN TALK (4/11/07) RAN IN PA FOR MEETING ON 5/1/07

A sure sign of spring is the Darby Creek Valley Association Streamwatch, which will take place 8:30 a.m. Sat. (April 14). As in past years, volunteers, pictured above at last year's event, will gather early in the morning at Bartram Park in Darby Borough, and then move upstream to take stream samples from four places along Darby Creek to gather information useful in judging the health of the Creek. The four places are Bartram Park (14th and Chestnut, Darby), Havertown (below the hospital), Skunk Hollow (Radnor), and the Brandywine Conservancy (in Eastlown). Critters gathered during Streamwatch (which will be analyzed during an identification workshop this fall) will provide an indication of stream health. New volunteers are always welcome. The stream watch is sponsored by DCVA along with the Annual Darby/Cobbs Creek Watershed-Wide Cleanup scheduled for April 28 and the Governor Printz Canoe Challenge scheduled for the fall. FAA AIRSPACE REDESIGN
NY/NJ/PHL Metropolitan Area Airspace Redesign Project Noise Mitigation Meetings

...e Federal Aviation Administra...n (FAA) has identified the Inte...ated Airspace Alternative varia...n with Integrated Control Com...x (ICC) as the preferred ...ernative for this project. This ...ernative includes the expanded ...e of terminal separation and a ...irecting of departures and ar...als to gain operational efficien...s. This includes alteration of ...tial departure headings from ...ne airports within the study ...a.

...As part of the National Environ...mental Policy Act (NEPA), the ...FAA is analyzing various mea...sures to mitigate some of the ...noise impacts created by the pre...ferred alternative. Some of these ...strategies include changes to the ...initial departure headings as well ...as Continuous Descent Approach ...(CDA) and over the water ap...proaches where operationally ...feasible. In addition, expanded ...use of advance technology is be...ing evaluated.

The FAA will host a series of five public information meetings ded...icated to providing an under...standing of the proposed noise mitigation strategies and how they could be implemented along with the preferred alternative. There will also be an opportunity to comment on the mitigation strategies.

The schedule and locations for these meetings is as follows:

THE COURIER POST (6/16 & 6/17/07) RAN IN SOUTHERN NJ FOR MEETING ON 6/27/07

FAA AIRSPACE REDESIGN
NY/NJ/PHL Metropolitan Area Airspace Redesign Project
Noise Mitigation Meetings

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) has identified the Integrated Airspace Alternative variation with Integrated Control Complex (ICC) as the preferred alternative for this project. This alternative includes the expanded use of terminal separation and a redirecting of departures and arrivals to gain operational efficiencies. This includes alteration of initial departure headings from some airports within the study area.

As part of the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) the FAA is analyzing various measures to mitigate some of the noise impacts created by the preferred alternative. Some of these strategies include changes to the initial departure headings as well as Continuous Descent Approach (CDA) and over the water approaches where operationally feasible. In addition, expanded use of advance technology is being evaluated.

The FAA will host two additional public information meetings in New Jersey, dedicated to providing an understanding of the proposed noise mitigation strategies and how they could be implemented along with the preferred alternative. The subject of the meetings is solely the Mitigation Strategies and the Preferred Alternative and comments on these subjects will be accepted only at the meetings. Comments accepted at these meeting will become part of the administrative record.

MY COMMISSION EXPIRES SEP 18, 2011

FAA AIRSPACE REDESIGN
NY/NJ/PHL Metropolitan Area Airspace Redesign Project
Noise Mitigation Meetings

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) has identified the Integrated Airspace Alternative variation with Integrated Control Complex (ICC) as the preferred alternative for this project. This alternative includes the expanded use of terminal separation and a redirecting of departures and arrivals to gain operational efficiencies. This includes alteration of initial departure headings from some airports within the study area.

As part of the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), the FAA is analyzing various measures to mitigate some of the noise impacts created by the preferred alternative. Some of these strategies include changes to the initial departure headings as well as Continuous Descent Approach (CDA) and over the water approaches where operationally feasible. In addition, expanded use of advance technology is being evaluated.

The FAA will host two additional public information meetings in New Jersey, dedicated to providing an understanding of the proposed noise mitigation strategies and how they could be implemented along with the preferred alternative. The subject of the meetings is solely the Mitigation Strategies and the Preferred Alternative and comments on these subjects will be accepted only at the meetings. Comments accepted at these meeting will become part of the administrative record.
