

No. 2279/dsa

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation presents its compliments to the Embassy of the United States of America in the Russian Federation and, referring to Article 1(d) of the Bilateral Air Safety Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Russian Federation, dated September 2, 1998, has the honor of advising that the Federal Agency of Air Transport (Rosaviatsiya) is an authorized agency (executive agent) from the Russian side as applied to type design approval, primary air worthiness approval, civil aviation aircraft approval as related to environmental protection and its testing for environmental impact, as well as applied to approval of maintenance enterprises, maintenance personnel and flight personnel, flight operation approval, qualification assessment of flight simulators and air training centers, and ensuring continued airworthiness of civil aircraft in operation.

The Russian side deems it expedient to coordinate, in the earliest future, the time and the place of a meeting between the authorized agencies of the member states of the Agreement to determine ways for future cooperation under existing bilateral agreements.

The Ministry would like to ask the Embassy to forward this information to the U.S. authorized body of the Agreement.

The Ministry avails itself of this opportunity to extend to the Embassy renewed assurances of its highest consideration.

MFA No. 42/2019

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation and refers to the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Russian Federation for Promotion of Aviation Safety, signed at Moscow on September 2, 1998 (the Agreement). Reference is made also to note No. 2279/dsa, dated May 4, 2016, from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation, which referred to Article I.D. of the Agreement and informed the Embassy that the Federal Agency for Air Transport (Rosaviatsiya) is the authorized agency from the Russian side as applied to: type design approvals; airworthiness approvals; environmental approvals and environmental testing of civil aeronautical products, as well as the approval of maintenance facilities, maintenance personnel and airmen; approval of aviation training establishments, and continuing in-service airworthiness issues related to civil aeronautical products.

The Embassy proposes, on behalf of the Government of the United States of America, to delete paragraph D of Article I of the Agreement in its entirety and replace it with the following:

Each Contracting Party designates the following as its executive agent to implement this Agreement:

For the Government of the United States of America, the executive agent shall be the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) of the Department of Transportation.

For the Government of the Russian Federation, the executive agent shall be the Federal Agency of Air Transport (Rosaviatsiya).

The Contracting Parties may, through diplomatic channels, change or supplement these designations.

The Embassy further proposes, on behalf of the Government of the United States of America, that this note and the affirmative reply note from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation shall constitute an agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Russian Federation to amend the Agreement, which shall enter into force on the date of the Ministry's affirmative note in reply.

The Embassy avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation the assurances of its highest consideration.

The Embassy of the United States of America

Moscow, April 5, 2019

No. 2239/dsa

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation presents its compliments to the Embassy of the United States of America and, citing the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Russian Federation for Promotion of Aviation Safety, signed at Moscow on September 2, 1998 (the Agreement), note No. 2279/dsa from the Ministry, dated May 4, 2016 and note No. MFA 42/2019 from the Embassy, dated April 5, 2019 regarding the amendments to the Agreement, has the honor of advising as follows.

The Ministry agrees with the proposal of the American side that paragraph D of Article I of the Agreement shall read as follows:

D. Each Contracting Party designates the following as its executive agent to implement this Agreement:

For the Government of the United States of America, the executive agent shall be the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) of the Department of Transportation.

For the Government of the Russian Federation, the executive agent shall be the Federal Agency of Air Transport (Rosaviatsiya).

The Contracting Parties may, through diplomatic channels, change or supplement these designations.

The aforementioned Embassy note and this reply note shall constitute the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Russian Federation on amending the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Russian Federation for Promotion of Aviation Safety, signed at Moscow on September 2, 1998, which shall enter into force on the date of this note.

The Ministry avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy the assurances of its highest consideration.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Moscow

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION
AND
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
FOR PROMOTION OF AVIATION SAFETY

The Government of the Russian Federation and the Government of the United States of America, hereinafter referred to as the Contract parties,

Desiring to promote civil aviation safety and environmental quality,

Noting common concerns for the safe operation of civil aircraft,

Recognizing the emerging trend toward multinational design, production, and interchange of civil aeronautical products,

Desiring to enhance cooperation and increase efficiency in matters relating to civil aviation safety,

Considering the possible reduction of the economic burden imposed on the aviation industry and operation by redundant technical inspections, evaluation, and testing,

Recognizing the mutual benefit of improved procedures for the reciprocal acceptance of airworthiness approvals, environmental testing, and development of reciprocal recognition procedures for approval and monitoring of flight simulators, aircraft maintenance facilities, maintenance personnel, airmen, and flight operations,

Have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

A. To facilitate acceptance by each Contracting Party of the other Contracting Party's (a) airworthiness approvals and environmental testing and approval of civil aeronautical products, and (b) qualification evaluations of flight simulators.

B. To facilitate acceptance by each Contracting Party of the approvals and monitoring of maintenance facilities and alteration of modification facilities, maintenance personnel, airmen, aviation training establishments, and flight operations of the other Contracting Party.

C. To provide for cooperation in sustaining an equivalent level of safety and environmental objectives with respect to aviation safety.

D. Each Contracting Party shall designate the appropriate authorities as its executive agent(s) to implement this Agreement.

For the Government of the Russian Federation, the executive agent shall be the Interstate Aviation Committee (IAC) for type design approval, initial airworthiness approvals, environmental approval, and environmental testing of civil aeronautical products; and the Federal Aviation Authority of Russia (FAAR) for approval of maintenance facilities, maintenance personnel, and airmen; approval of aviation training establishments; and continuing inservice airworthiness issues related to civil aeronautical products. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Agreement, the IAC shall act under the authority and on behalf of the Government of the Russian Federation.

For the Government of the United States of America, the executive agent shall be the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) of the Department of Transportation.

ARTICLE II

For the purpose of this Agreement, the terms below have the following meaning:

- A. "Airworthiness approval" means finding that type design or change to a type design or change to a type design of a civil aeronautical product meets standards agreed between the Contracting Parties or that a product conforms to a type design that has been found to meet those standards, and is in a condition for safe operation.
- B. "Alterations or modifications" means making a change to the construction, configuration, performance, environmental characteristics, or operating limitations of the affected civil aeronautical product.
- C. "Approval of flight operations" means that the technical inspections and evaluations conducted by a Contracting Party, using standards agreed between the Contracting Parties, of an entity providing commercial air transportation of passengers or cargo, or the finding that the entity complies with those standards.
- D. "Civil aeronautical product" means any civil aircraft, aircraft engine, or propeller or subassembly, appliance material, part, or component to be installed thereon.
- E. "Environmental approval" means a finding that a civil aeronautical product complies with standards agreed between the Contracting Parties concerning noise and/or exhaust emissions. "Environmental testing" means a process by which a civil aeronautical product is evaluated for compliance with those standards, using procedures agreed between Contracting Parties.
- F. "Flight simulator qualification evaluations" means the process by which a flight simulator is assessed by comparison to the aircraft it simulates, in accordance with standards agreed between the Contracting Parties, or the finding that it complies with those standards.
- G. "Maintenance" means the performance of inspection, overhaul, repair, preservation, and the replacement of parts, materials, appliances, or components of a product to assure the continued airworthiness of that product, but excludes alterations or modifications.
- H. "Monitoring" means the periodic surveillance by a Contracting Party's appropriate executive agent to determine continuing compliance with the appropriate standards.

ARTICLE III

A. The Contracting Parties' appropriate executive agents shall conduct technical assessments and work cooperatively to develop an understanding of each other's standards and systems in the following areas:

1. Airworthiness approvals of civil aeronautical products;
2. Environmental approval and environmental testing;
3. Approval of maintenance facilities, alteration or modification facilities, maintenance personnel, and airmen;
4. Approval of flight operations;
5. Qualification of flight simulators; and
6. Approval of aviation training establishments.

B. When the appropriate executive agents of the Contracting Parties agree that the standards, rules, practices, procedures, and systems of both Contracting Parties in one of the technical specialties listed above are sufficiently equivalent or compatible to permit acceptance of findings of compliance made by one Contracting Party for the other Contracting Party to the agreed upon standards, the appropriate executive agents shall execute written Implementation Procedures describing the methods by which such reciprocal acceptance shall be made with respect to that technical specialty.

C. The Implementation Procedures shall include at a minimum:

1. Definitions;
2. A description of the particular area of civil aviation to be addressed;
3. Provisions for reciprocal acceptance of appropriate executive agent actions such as test witnessing, inspections, qualifications, approvals, and certifications;
4. Accountability of executive agents;
5. Provisions for mutual cooperation and technical assistance;
6. Provisions for periodic evaluations; and
7. Provisions for amendments to or termination of the Implementation Procedures.

ARTICLE IV

Any disagreement regarding the interpretation or application of this Agreement or its Implementation Procedures shall be resolved by consultation between the contracting Parties or their appropriate executive agents, respectively.

ARTICLE V

This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature and shall remain in force until terminated by sixty (60) days' written notice from one Contracting Party to the other Contracting Party. Such termination shall also act to terminate all existing Implementation Procedures executed in accordance with this Agreement. This agreement may be amended by the written agreement of the Contracting Parties. Individual Implementation Procedures may be terminated or amended by the appropriate executive agents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.

DONE at Moscow, this 2nd Day of September, 1998 in duplicate, in the Russian and English Languages, each text being equally authentic.
