What is a Reimbursable Agreement?

- A Reimbursable Agreement is a legal document executed by an FAA Contracting Officer and a Sponsor under which the Sponsor provides funding to the FAA for materials, supplies, equipment, and/or services supporting the Sponsor's initiative.
- A Reimbursable Agreement provides resources to protect the operation of the National Airspace System (NAS).

When is a Reimbursable Agreement required?

When a Sponsor's project impacts an FAA facility by:

- 1. Requiring relocation, replacement, or modification of an FAA facility due to the Airport's or Sponsor's improvement and/ or project
- 2. Impairing the technical and operational characteristics of an FAA facility
- 3. Requiring FAA Engineering Services Involvement

When should you contact our office?

- Ideally – 4 to 5 years before construction
 - Allows NPI to research future FAA equipment replacements and integrate into sponsors project
 - FAA - 3 year budget cycle (2022 in progress)
 - Reduces/prevents multiple runway shutdowns
 - De-conflict projects that may pose a risk to operations – Operational Risk Management (ORM)

What services will the FAA provide for Reimbursable Agreements?

FAA services can include:

- Technical Analysis, Site Selection
- Engineering, Engineering Design Support/Oversight
- Equipment Specifications
- Equipment Upgrades as a Target of Opportunity
- Construction Oversight
- Installation & Testing
- Flight Inspection

Reimbursable Agreement Options

- Full Reimbursable Agreement
 - Engineering
 - Construction
 - Engineering and Construction
- Limited
 - Engineering (Design Review & Construction Oversight)
- Preliminary Design Review Agreement (PDRA)
- Small Scale Reimbursable Agreement (SSRA)
 - Design Review
 - Cable Relocation
 - Special Event
 - Travel

Reimbursable Agreement Limitations and Considerations

- Full and Limited RA's
 - Not to exceed 5-years performance
 - Able to address most every situation
 - Improved Cost Estimate
 - Improved project scope development and expectations
 - Efficient use of resources - may not be necessary to create multiple Agreements.
 - Full takes 6-8 months to develop
 - Limited takes 2-4 months to develop

Reimbursable Agreement Limitations and Considerations

- PDRA and SSRA
 - Limitations to intent of Agreement. Reimbursable Agreement templates are “locked” and users can only enter into Agreement specific information such as Sponsor name, address, funding amount, and period of performance.
 - Limited to maximum estimated cost up to $100K plus overhead.
 - Limited to maximum duration of 3 years
 - PDRA and SSRA can be established in 6-weeks to 9-weeks
