

ATTENTION-DEFICIT/HYPERACTIVITY DISORDER (ADHD)*
AND/OR USE OF ADHD MEDICATIONS

All Classes
(Updated 10/30/2024)

DISEASE/CONDITION	EVALUATION DATA	DISPOSITION
A. NO treatment or use of ADHD medication (for any reason) in past four (4) years AND NO symptoms in past four (4) years AND NO instability in academic, occupational, or social functioning within the last four (4) years AND NO other psychiatric condition(s) or diagnosis (current or historical). Exception: Anxiety, Depression, and Related Conditions can use this row if the individual qualifies for the Anxiety, Depression, and Related Conditions Fast Track Pathway.	The individual will need to see a psychologist or neuropsychologist for records review and evaluation*. This section may be performed in person or virtually (in compliance with State and Federal regulations). *Note: Records review and evaluation can be done virtually; however, the evaluation component must be face-to-face on screen, not audio only. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> See Fast Track - FAA ADHD Evaluation General Information for Pilots and ATCS The AME should review the FAA ADHD Summary completed by a psychologist or neuropsychologist who has training and experience in the evaluation of ADHD. If the FAA ADHD Summary is provided, all items are in the “NO” category, and the AME has NO concerns regarding this individual: Note: If FAA ADHD Summary is not provided, any “YES” answers, any AME concerns, or unable to verify history, go to Row B.	 ISSUE Summarize this history, annotate Block 60 “Meets ADHD Fast Track requirements.” Submit ALL the following to the FAA: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Completed and signed FAA ADHD Summary; Actual clinical visit report (not patient portal notes) from the psychologist or neuropsychologist ; and Copies of ALL supporting documents reviewed.

DISEASE/CONDITION	EVALUATION DATA	DISPOSITION
B. Symptoms, treatment or use of ADHD Medication (for any reason), or instability in past four (4) years OR History of any psychiatric condition(s) or diagnosis (current or historical) including Anxiety, Depression, and Related Conditions which do not qualify for the Anxiety, Depression, and Related Conditions Fast Track Pathway. OR AME and/or HIMS Neuropsychologist have any concerns	This row requires HIMS neuropsychology evaluation and testing to identify the presence of aeromedically significant ADHD. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evaluation and testing must be completed in person by a HIMS neuropsychologist; ADHD testing is required after record review; and The HIMS Neuropsychologist should reference the Standard Track - FAA ADHD Evaluation General Information for Pilots and ATCS. Medication: If the individual stopped taking ADHD medication(s), they must be off the medication(s) for 90 days before testing and evaluation.	 DEFER Submit the information to the FAA.
C. Currently taking ADHD medication (for any reason), including PRN use OR Medication discontinued within the past 90 days OR Current symptoms	Taking ADHD medication or symptoms of ADHD are incompatible with aviation safety. Submit the following for FAA review: The most recent detailed, clinical progress note from the prescribing physician which identifies the diagnosis and treatment plan. If the treating physician determines the medication can be safely discontinued, the individual should be off the medication a minimum of 90 days before obtaining the Standard Track - FAA ADHD Evaluation See Row B.	 DEFER Submit the information to the FAA

*ADHD has replaced the former name Attention-Deficit Disorder (ADD).