Dear Industry Stakeholder:

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Office of Safety & Standards (AAS) and Airports Safety Policy Branch (AAS-310) invites comments and recommendations on the draft update to Advisory Circular (AC) 150/5200.31D – Airport Emergency Plan.

Your review of and input on this draft will assist the FAA with improving the quality and usability of the final document. Please review and submit your comments, including suggestions, questions and contrary opinions to the proposed changes. Provide reasoning and justification for all comments submitted. The Advisory Circular cover sheet summarizes the principal changes.

To ensure proper consideration of your comments, please submit comments in the comment matrix document we provide. Do not embed your edits and comments in the draft document. Please submit the comment matrix in an Excel (not PDF) format. Comments submitted in other formats or past the due date may not be considered. Submit comments by December 21, 2026, for consideration.

Please send any comments on the provided comment matrix to 9-ARP-AirportOpsSafety@faa.gov.

Sincerely,

ANTHONY M BUTTERS
