

Federal Aviation Administration

Memorandum

Date:

To: Neika Jones, Directive Program Manager, ASP-110

From: Malcolm Andrews, Director, Enterprise Services, AJM-3

Subject: Cancellation of FAA Orders

Navigation Programs is requesting the cancellation of the following FAA Orders. An internal review was conducted and justification for each cancelation is provided below.

Order Number	Date	Document Title	OPR	Reason for Cancellation
6820.13A	5/19/1993	Project Implementation Plan for Low Power TACAN Antenna	AJM-32	No longer relevant as the Distance Measuring Equipment (DME), Very High Frequency Omnidirectional Range (VOR) Tactical Air Navigation (TACAN) (DVT) Sustainment Program TACAN Antenna Procurement will address system replacement.
6560.29	3/26/1993	New Generation Runway Visual Range System	AJM-32	No longer relevant as standard drawings are currently established and maintained by the National Computer-Aided Engineering Graphics (CAEG) Program in accordance with Order 6000.5C, National Facility Drawing Library Procedure.
6830.4	9/21/1992	Microwave Landing System (MLS) Project Implementation Plan (PIP)	AJM-32	According to the FAA Public Regulation & Policy page, Order 6830.4 MLS PIP has been cancelled.

Should you have any concerns or questions, please contact Deborah Lawrence, Manager, Navigation Programs, at 202-267-3200.