Subject: Cancellation of Federal Aviation Administration Order 3120.27C

Air Traffic Organization (ATO) Safety and Technical Training (AJI) is requesting the cancellation of Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Order 3120.27C, Performance Verification (PV) for En Route and Terminal Initial Qualification Training, issued April 1, 2010. This order established procedures and guidance for conducting PV assessments on students who completed En Route or Terminal initial qualification training at the FAA Academy. The order is no longer valid based on the changes to the assessment requirements for initial En Route qualification training. The grading requirements for all initial qualification training will now be addressed in FAA Order JO 3120.4, Air Traffic Technical Training.

Please take the required action to cancel Order 3120.27C.
