The cost of printing is unnecessarily increased whenever there are author's alterations in proofs, or failure to take advantage of production economies such as good planning, editing, and formatting. To eliminate a substantial amount of unessential printing and excessive costs, the Joint Committee on Printing requires that printing and binding for general use be standardized, and urges that heads of departments and agencies "maintain under their direct supervision a central service with responsibility for the conduct of a coordinated program controlling the development of materials to be printed or duplicated, the procurement of printing, and the production and distribution of printed or duplicated matter."

5. REPORTS. Printing Managers of all regions and centers of FAA shall serve as liaison with AMS-110, Publishing and Graphics Management Branch, and are responsible for submitting the appropriate Joint Committee on Printing reporting forms within 30 days after March 31 and September 30 each year. These forms are made part of an all encompassing report to the Department and the Congressional Joint Committee on Printing. They are also the source documents for the analysis of the agency printing program. 21. PURCHASE, RENTAL, EXCHANGE, OR TRANSFER OF EQUIPMENT.

a. The Chief, Systems Support Division, or designee, shall approve or disapprove all transactions involving the acquisition, transfer, or disposal of all printing equipment wherever located.

b. The Chief, Systems Support Division, or designee, shall approve or disapprove all transactions involving the acquisition, transfer, or disposal of all duplicating and copy-processing equipment in the Washington headquarters, including the Metropolitan Washington Airports.

Chapter I

a. Publishing—A Departmental Obligation. Section 4(a) of the DOT Act provides that the Secretary shall "promote and undertake development, collection and dissemination of technological, statistical, economic and other information relevant to domestic and international transportation." The primary means for performance of the dissemination phase of this function is publishing.

b. Printing Cost. Printing is a costly commodity, subject to rigid controls and continued scrutiny by the Congress, the Office of Management and Budget, the General Accounting Office, and the Government Printing Office. The cost of printing is unnecessarily increased whenever there is a lack of planning, inadequate editing, elaborate format, author's alterations in proofs or failure to take advantage of production economies.

c. Management of the Printing Program. In its regulations, the Joint Committee on Printing:

(1) directs the heads of departments to supervise a central printing and publications management organization. This organization will conduct a coordinated program which controls the development of material to be produced, procured, or distributed through the utilization of conventional printing and binding methods or through the utilization of multiple copy microform methods, and

(2) directs that the central printing and publication management organization maintain equal responsibility and control of duplicating equipment and automatic copy processing or copier-duplicating machines.

2. DEFINITIONS OF TERMS. For purposes of this Order the following definitions apply:

a. Printing Management Organizations are those organizational entities authorized to provide printing and distribution services. These include the OST Publishing and Graphics Division, Office of Administrative Operations, in the Washington Headquarters and authorized printing plants in the field. The term does not encompass units authorized to produce duplicating.

b. Printing means the processes of composition, platemaking, presswork, binding and microform; the equipment used in such processes and the end items produced by such processes and equipment.

(1) Departmental Printing means all "printing" which is for the use of Washington Headquarters or for the general use in an Administration regardless of the place of origin of such work.

(2) Field Printing means all "printing," produced primarily for use in the geographical area of its origin other than the Washington Headquarters.

(3) Contract Field Printing means all "field printing" procured from commercial sources.

c. Authorized Printing Plant is an organizational entity for which approval has been granted by the Joint Committee on Printing of the Congress of the United States, to perform departmental and/or field printing. (The printing plant located in the Washington Headquarters is authorized to perform both departmental and field printing). All other printing plants in the operating administrations are authorized to perform field printing only, unless a specific exception has been authorized by the Joint Committee on Printing.

d. Camera Copy is any image to be photographed for subsequent reproduction by printing or duplicating processes.

e. Composition includes typesetting or the preparation of final copy by any method used as a substitute for typesetting when it is procured commercially or produced in an authorized printing plant and is to be used in the production of printing.

f. Copy-processing (photocopying) is the production of material by diazo, electrostatic, heat and similar processes in the likeness of the original document using machines including, but not limited to: Ozalid, Apeco, Xerox, Thermofax, etc. (no endorsement intended or implied).

g. Distribution encompasses the development of a plan for the dissemination of printed and duplicated matter based on determination of requirements in terms of quantities and recipients and the subsequent effective execution of that plan, including provisions for initial distribution as well as back-up stock.

h. Duplicating means all work produced outside an authorized printing plant, by offset, spirit, or stencil processes on equipment not larger than 11x17 inches and which have a maximum image of 10-3/4x14-1/4 inches. Provided that: no work is produced that exceeds 5,000 production units of any one page or 25,000 production units in the aggregate of multiple pages.

i. House Organ is any periodical in which the major portion of the contents consists of news items and articles concerning the activities of the Department and is intended primarily for use within the Department.

The Committee is empowered to issue regulations governing printing, binding, and distribution in the Federal Government. Paragraph 103 of Title 44 U.S. Code reflects the remedial powers of the Joint Committee on Printing: "The Joint Committee may use any measure it considers necessary to remedy neglect, delay, duplication, or waste in the public printing and binding and the distribution of Government publications."

k. Mailing List is a file containing the names and addresses of individuals, organizations, foreign and local governments, etc., to whom printed and duplicated matter is sent on a recurring basis.

Chapter III

REGULATIONS, STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES

No printed matter produced by or at the direction of the Department or an administration shall contain any advertisement for any private individual, firm or corporation; or contain any material which implies in any manner that the Government endorses or favors any specific commercial product, commodity or service.

2. CALLING CARDS. Printing or engraving of calling or greeting cards is considered personal rather than official and shall not be done at Government expense.

3. CAMERA COPY. Such copy and illustrations shall not be procured commercially by requesting offices except through printing management organizations.

4. COLOR PRINTING.

a. Printing in two or more colors or the use of illustrations is prohibited unless they are functional and essential to a clear understanding of the subject matter. Color printing will not be used for decorative purposes. The following categories are examples of color work that are functionally justified:

- (1) maps and technical diagrams where color is necessary for clarity;
- (2) food and medical disease identification;

- (4) safety promotion and fire prevention.

b. Printing in two or more colors must be approved by the Chief, OST Publishing and Graphics Division. In the field, approval is delegated to the heads of printing management organizations.

printed or duplicated or reproduced by or for the Department, written permission shall be obtained from the copyright owner. This shall be done by the office requesting the material to be reproduced. A copy of the permission must accompany request for reproduction. Copyrighted lines are mandatory for copyrighted material; such lines shall be set in the smallest practical typeface so that they shall be subordinate both to text and illustration.

7. CREDIT LINES.

a. Courtesy or credit lines are permissible for uncopyrighted materials contributed or loaned by nongovernment activities. Such credit lines shall be set in the smallest practicable typeface so that they shall be subordinate both to text and illustration. No credit shall be given when such materials have been purchased by the Department.

b. When all such materials have come from a single nongovernment source, credit shall be given in an undisplayed preliminary paragraph instead of being repeated on an individual basis.

c. No credit lines shall be permitted for any designer, typographer or layout artist. Also, no credit lines shall be permitted for the sole purpose of giving credit to any author or department employee except in-house organs and similar morale type publications.

8. FREE DISTRIBUTION: No person connected with the Department shall furnish without prior JCP authorization any publication, directive, manual, report, etc., free to any private individual or organization in lots exceeding 50 copies unless the cost is less than one hundred dollars. "U.S. Department of Transportation", and/or the Department insignia, the name of the originating or sponsoring element shall also appear, the date of issuance and publication number.

10. MAILING LISTS. Such lists shall be maintained and controlled by printing management organizations and shall be revised at least once a year to eliminate waste in department funds caused by material being improperly addressed or mailed to persons no longer desiring such material. This method of revision shall require that persons receiving the publications indicate that they wish to continue receiving the publication. Failure to reply to a mailing list revision request shall require the elimination of the addressee from the mailing list unless it is necessary in the conduct of official business to continue mailing publications to the addressee. The use of titles on mailing lists in lieu of names will reduce the cost of list maintenance.

11. PAPER STOCK. Only those types, grades, weights and colors of paper included within the Government Paper Specification Standards issued by the Joint Committee on Printing shall be procured or specified for the printing, duplicating and binding of Department material. Exception may be authorized by the Joint Committee on Printing.

12. PRINTING REQUIREMENTS RESULTING FROM CONTRACTS AND GRANTS. The inclusion of printing within contracts for the manufacture and/or operation of equipment and for services such as architectural, engineering and research, or within grants is prohibited unless authorized by the Joint Committee on Printing. This regulation does not preclude:

a. procurement of writing, editing, preparation of manuscript copy, or preparation of related illustrative material as a part of the contract or grant;

b. a requirement for the contractor or grantee to duplicate, as defined in paragraph 2h, Chapter I, not more than 5,000 units of one page or 25,000 units in the aggregate of multiple pages;

c. a requirement for administrative printing, e.g., forms and instructional materials, necessary to be used by a contractor, or grantee responding to the terms of a contract or grant. Nor does it preclude recording manuscript copy in digital form for typesetting purposes provided coding instructions have been approved by the OST Publishing and Graphics Division. However, the printing of such material for the Government must be accomplished in accordance with laws and regulations.

13. PRIVATE OR COMMERCIAL WORK. No work of a private or commercial nature shall be accomplished in any authorized printing plant or in any duplicating or copying unit of the Department even though the Government is reimbursed therefor.

14. SECURITY. 15. STYLE. The Government Printing Office Style Manual shall be the standard guide in preparation of copy for printing by the Department.

16. PROCEDURES FOR OBTAINING SERVICES IN THE WASHINGTON HEADQUARTERS.

a. Source of Service. The OST will provide all printing services for the Washington Headquarters and such duplicating services as may be requested. OST will provide all distribution services for the Washington Headquarters.

b. Printing Review Point. All requests for printing services shall be reviewed by a printing review official at a central printing review point prior to submission to OST. Only one key official and two alternates from each operation element and OST shall be authorized to sign off on Forms DOT F 1700.3 and DOT F 1700.8. A letter of request must be made to Chief, Publishing and Graphic Division, M-48, when there is a need for additional alternates.

c. Printing Review Official.

(1) Establishes relative priorities for work.

(2) Assures that funds are available and appropriately cited.

(3) Ensures compliance with policies and standards.

(4) Serves as a liaison with OST in all printing and copying matters.

d. Technical Advisory Services. The OST Printing Branch shall provide technical guidance for format development, production, planning, and the preparation of copy or other materials for production. Operating administration shall not directly contact the Government Printing Office or other production source for technical assistance or for information regarding production or procurement.

e. Requests for Printing Service.

(1) All requests for composition, printing, binding, distribution and related services shall be made by the use of Form DOT F 1700.3.

(2) Prior to receipt by OST, all requests shall be channeled through the printing review points designated under the provisions of paragraph 16b.

f. Distribution Services. Initial distribution requirements should be indicated on DOT Form 1700.3. Requirements for other distribution services, such as stock for subsequent use, contact your organization's distribution control officer.

g. Editing Services. Upon request, editing services will be provided through the Graphics Branch, M-486, on a contractual basis (Washington Headquarters).

17. STANDARDS.

a. Binding. Only standard types of binding shall be specified or used unless the additional expense can be justified by the requesting office. Standard types include saddle or side-stitched, pasted or perfect bind. Other types which generate additional expense include comb-binding and hard cover book binding.

b. Color in Publication. When use of two or more colors of ink (including black) is contemplated, the printing management organization shall be consulted during the initial planning stage. Approval shall not be granted unless the additional color(s) serve a specific functional purpose. When it is agreed that the use of two or more colors is essential, the requesting office shall furnish printing management organization with a written justification. This justification shall be used as documentation and as a basis for obtaining any additional approvals required by the regulations of the Joint Committee on Printing.

c. Composition and Layout.

(1) To the fullest extent practicable, part, chapter, section, and other headings and related display matter shall be composed in the same family of type and by the same process as the text matter. Unless an exception is granted by a printing management organization during the planning stage, maximum size for body text shall be 10-point type or equivalent, and wherever practical, smaller type sizes shall be used and leading between lines shall not exceed 2 points (single space typing).

(2) Blank pages shall be eliminated when possible, with due consideration for economies inherent in the use of signatures in printing production. Format and page makeup shall be planned to reduce blank space to a minimum. Unless an exception is granted by the cognizant printing management organization, all printing and duplicating shall be done on both sides of each sheet. Bleed pages shall be designed in accordance with imposition requirements and final trim sizes.

d. Computerized text manipulating systems. The use of computerized text manipulating systems in the preparation of a document or documents for publication must be coordinated with the Printing Branch, Planning Section.

e. Corrections and Changes in Copy and Proofs. All manuscript copy or camera copy shall be carefully prepared, edited and reviewed before submission for composition and/or printing. When a manuscript has advanced to galley or page proofs, nonessential improvements in the language, form or expression, punctuation, etc., shall be avoided. Author's alterations in proofs shall be kept to a minimum as they are expensive and delay production.

f. Covers. Publications not exceeding 32 pages shall have self-covers, i.e., covers of the same paper stock as the inside pages. Exceptions may be made such as when the publication is a part of a series. Separate covers may be authorized or used for publications consisting of more than 32 pages, however, self-covers shall be used on Department publications to the maximum extent practicable.

g. Form and Appearance of Manuscript Copy. Copy submitted for composition shall be clear and legible, shall be typed double spaced on only one side of the paper and shall not contain extensive additions or correction. Paragraphs shall be completed on one page and the pages shall be numbered consecutively. Tabular matter shall be on separate sheets.

h. Illustrations. Illustrations for use in printed and duplicated matter shall be designed with full consideration as to end use and the final trim size of the page(s) on which they are to be displayed.
