

On-time Valentine: NextGen is Delivering Benefits Now for FedEx

Memphis

MEM FedEx

Valentine's Day is the second busiest time of the year for FedEx

In the weeks leading up to Valentine's Day, FedEx expects to ship millions of pounds of flowers, chocolates, jewelry and other gifts, making hundreds of thousands of deliveries on top of its average daily volume of 10 million shipments.

To handle the influx of shipments during this period, FedEx and its networks of dedicated team members will add extra flights and trucks to normal operations.

AVERAGE DAILY VOLUME

NEXTGEN IMPROVEMENTS

10 Million Packages

20% Increase In Flight Operations

New wake turbulence separation standards are improving efficiency of operations at Memphis

TIME SAVED PER FLIGHT

2.6 Minutes Saved In Flight

3.3 Minutes Saved Taxi Out Time

Less time on taxi way, less CO₂ emissions

RESULTING BENEFIT

Fuel Saved 4,178,907 Gallons/Year

RESULTING BENEFIT

CO₂ Saved 39,992 Metric Tons/Per Year

Estimated 8,400 Cars Off The Road Annually

"The first night I couldn't believe what I was reading."

Jim Bowman, FedEx vice president of flight operations

FIND US ON SOCIAL MEDIA #FLYNEXTGEN

NextGEN

faa.gov/nextgen