

Claim

Use Rebate Reservation Code and Incentive Code to claim your rebate

5

General Aviation ADS-B Rebate Claim

Below are the steps to claim the general aviation ADS-B rebate. You must meet the legal and program requirements, have a Reservation Code and an Incentive Code to claim your rebate.

1. CLAIM CHECKLIST

Visit www.faa.gov/go/rebate

All boxes must be checked in order to begin the claim process

- Have a Reservation Code (received in an email from the Reserve step)
- Installed ADS-B transmitter
- Conducted a check flight
- Have an Incentive Code (located on the GAIRS report from the Fly & Validate step)
- Aircraft owner has validated aircraft registration information in the Civil Aviation Registry

2. LOCATE RESERVATION

1. Enter your aircraft tail number
2. Enter the reservation code that was emailed to you after you made your rebate reservation
3. Enter your email address

Let's find your reservation:

Enter the following:

* US Tail Number:

* Reservation Code:

* Email Address:

[* Denotes A Required Action]

3. APPLICATION

Review all the information in the claim to ensure accuracy.

4. APPROVE AND SIGN

1. Provide information on your installed ADS-B equipment and enter the Incentive Code that was emailed to you after the 'Fly & Validate' step.
2. Confirm the five statements and check the boxes to acknowledge the rebate terms and conditions. Enter your name as an electronic signature.

QUESTIONS

For Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ), visit: faa.gov/nextgen/equipadsb/rebate/faq/

For additional questions, email: ADSBRbateHelp@faa.gov