

DME/DPRE Training Requirements Table

	Initial Training	Description	Training Interval
DME	Initial Designated Mechanic Examiner Seminar	Training consists of (2) parts as follows: Part 1 is a web-based prerequisite course that covers Structure of the U.S. Code, The Code of Federal Regulations, Laws and FAA Policy and Guidance pertaining to holding a delegation on behalf of the Federal Aviation Administration. Part II classroom-based seminar places emphasis on the Oral and Practical tests, use of the Practical Test Standards, Oral/Practical Test Generator, Minimum Tool & Equipment List (MTEL), test planning, evaluation of applicants, use of the related forms and certification file disposition. The 3-day (24 classroom hours) seminar consists of both lecture and workshop activities.	Initial appointment
DPRE	Initial Designated Parachute Rigger Examiner Seminar	Training consists of (2) parts as follows: Part 1 is a web-based prerequisite course that covers Structure of the U.S. Code, The Code of Federal Regulations, Laws and FAA Policy and Guidance pertaining to holding a delegation on behalf of the Federal Aviation Administration. Part II classroom-based seminar places emphasis on the Oral and Practical tests, use of the Parachute Rigger Practical Test Standards, Oral/Practical test planning, evaluation of applicants, use of the related forms and certification file disposition of each rigger applicant. The 3-day (24 classroom hours) seminar consists of both lecture and workshop activities. Enrollment will be restricted to 6 to 8 learners per class and will only be scheduled on a case-by-case basis.	Initial appointment
DME	Recurrent Designated Mechanic Examiner Seminar	Continued emphasis on the oral and practical tests from the pre-test interview to completing the airmen certification file. The use of the the Mechanic Test Generator (MTG) and the DMS during planning, testing and evaluation of each applicant. Review of the current policy(s) and regulations	Every 24 months after initial training.

		as they apply to DME functions; and Mechanic certification procedures will be covered in the 8-hour (1-day) seminar.
DPRE	Recurrent Designated Parachute Rigger Examiner Seminar	Continued emphasis on the oral and practical tests from the pre-test interview to completing the airmen certification files. Follow and use the PTS during planning, testing and evaluation of each applicant. Correctly issue Temporary Airmen Certificates. Review current policy(s) and regulations as they apply to DPRE functions and cover parachute rigger certification procedures by completing a web based recurrent course.	Every 24 months after initial training.