Bad Idea: Copying Your PIV Card

Employees, contractors, and other individuals with PIV cards or other FAA-issued ID badges are reminded that copying your government ID is prohibited.

FAA Order 1600.78 prohibits the improper use, counterfeiting, copying, or alteration of PIV cards and other ID badges. Unauthorized reproduction of your ID may result in disciplinary action. Further, under federal law, individuals may be subject to criminal penalties for the unauthorized reproduction of government ID cards and credentials.

If you have questions concerning reproduction of PIV cards or other FAA credentials, please contact: 9-NATL-PIV@faa.gov
