The map displays the state of Iowa with its major highways and neighboring states: Minnesota to the west, Missouri to the south, Nebraska to the southwest, and Wisconsin to the northwest. The Mississippi River is shown flowing through the eastern part of the state. Major cities and their corresponding airports are marked with symbols indicating their service type. For example, Des Moines International Airport is marked as a Primary airport (red airplane), while many smaller airports like Boone, Ames, and Ankeny are marked as General Aviation airports (blue dots). The map also includes a scale bar showing distances in miles (0, 45, 90) and a north arrow.
