

Communication: (description of communications equipment, ATC, range control, GCS, Operators/observers etc.)

An assigned Mission Commander maintains oversight for the operation. This system incorporates two Ground Control Stations (GCS) with an ability of transferring control from one to the other. For launch/recoveries, an additional UA operator is located at the PGCS for redundancy. Radio contact is continuously maintained with ground observers and with ATC during missions.