

Control Station

An assigned Mission Commander maintains oversight for the operation. This system incorporates two GCS with an ability of transferring control from one to the other. For launch/recoveries, an additional UA operator is located in the Portable GCS for redundancy. Radio contact is continuously maintained with ground observers and with A.P.Hill Range control during missions.