

Visual Observation

Outside Observers shall be in an area to observe the UAS and surrounding area at all times using visual aids, such as binoculars during day operations and night vision goggles (ANPVS-7) during night operations to detect other airborne traffic. At no time shall the observers be more than 1-mile laterally and 3,000 feet vertically from the UA. (See attached map with observer locations)