Launch: A spring loaded launcher is used to launch BUSTER

(b) (6)

Recovery (Next Page)

Recovery: is controlled by the onboard computer deploying a parachute after analyzing existing winds based on a user selected lat/long position. One person operates the GCS and another person operates the launcher.