

Launch and Recovery

- ▶ The Rascal UAS is launched and recovered by a takeoff roll and a flared landing. During these portions of the flight the vehicle is controlled manually through the ground control station using an R/C style handset. The takeoff and landings are done on an open and smooth, preferably paved, surface.

