

Emergency procedures

Engine Failure

Aircraft glides back to runway under manual radio control.

GPS Loss

Not applicable because this aircraft will only be operated under manual radio control.

Electrical Power Loss

The engine ignition cuts off and the aircraft descends to landing.

Flight Termination

Aircraft can be landed at any time using manual radio control. If necessary, the engine can be stopped at any time using manual radio control.