

Lost link/mission procedure

If the 72 MHz RC receiver loses signal, the failsafe feature moves the throttle to flight idle and inputs a lateral-directional command. This results in the aircraft entering a downward spiral to landing.