

Procedures-Lost Communications

The pilots communicate with Moffett Control Tower primarily through a UHF trunking radio. If communication through the UHF radio is lost, the pilots will land the aircraft and call Tower using a cell phone.