

Description of Control Station for the JPL Titan Aerobot Testbed

December 2006

Teleoperation control is effected with a Futaba Model T9CP hand held control unit (pictured below) which operates over a standard 72 MHz link. The pilot remains in visual range (up to 1 km) of the blimp at all times.

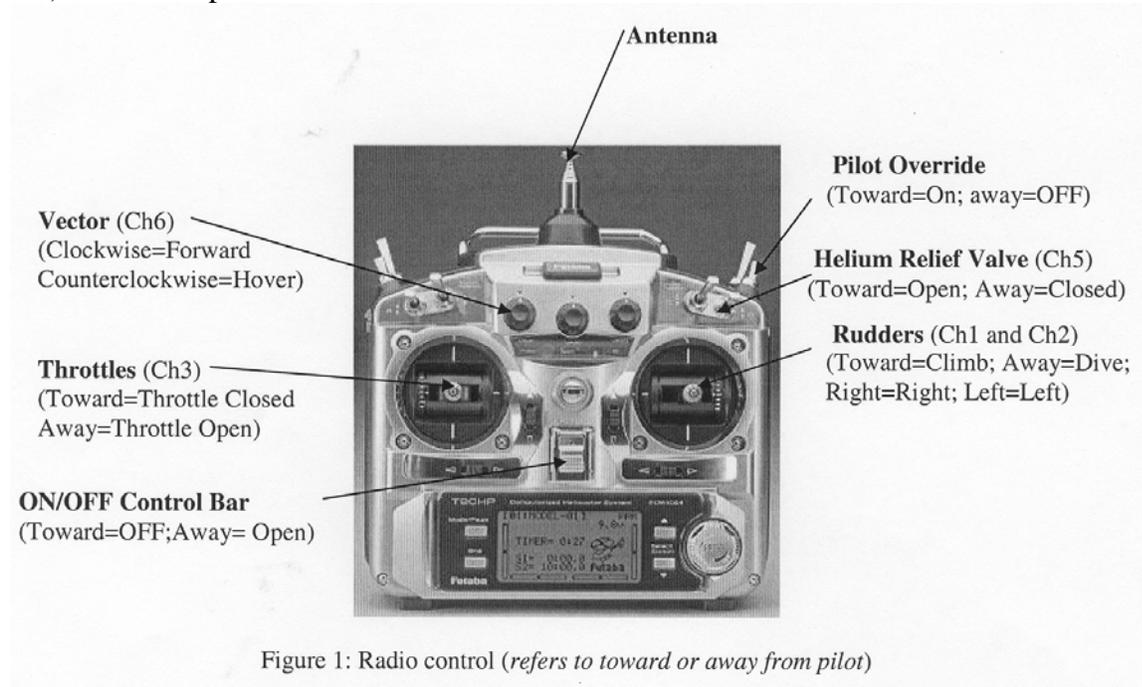

Figure 1: Radio control (refers to toward or away from pilot)