Lost link/mission procedure

The Vision UAV is manually operated by radio control. Upon loss of link, the servos will move to a predefined position. These servos positions will result in an auotmatic engine-idle and a descent.