

Maveric UAS Communications

The Ground Control Station communicates to the aircraft via a radio modem that operates in the 900 MHz range. The Maxstream 900 radios operate on a hopping scheme from 902-928Mhz.

Video broadcasted from the Maveric UAS is received at the GCS via a radio modem that operates in the 2.4 GHz range.