

Lost Comms between personnel

Most missions will have the observer within earshot of the PIC

If observer is removed, then short range radios will be used, with a failover to cell phone communications