

Lost Communication Procedures

If the PIC experiences a communication failure with the incident command, he shall maintain and follow approved course while attempting to re-establish communications. After 10 minutes the pilot may initiate a “return home” command to the aircraft. Aircraft will return to the original point of launch and “loiter” awaiting further commands. If the PIC cannot/does not re-establish communications with the IC, the aircraft shall be ordered to land.