

ORBITER Procedures

Lost Communication – If the Orbiter pilot loses direct two-way communication with the visual observer, the Orbiter pilot will activate the return home feature, so that the Orbiter begins a direct flight to the return home point where the parachute and airbag system process will be activated