

ORBITER Procedures

Emergency – In the event the Orbiter experiences some emergency condition that may result in the Orbiter not being able to continue its mission flight profile, the pilot can activate the return home feature or use the EMERGENCY switch to immediately activate the parachute and airbag process.