

ORBITER Visual Observation

There will be a minimum of one visual observer in addition to the Orbiter pilot. A visual observer shall maintain visual contact with the Orbiter at all times and also maintain direct two way communication with the Orbiter pilot. The visual observer will provide instructions to the pilot to prevent a collision with other aircraft and also assist in ensuring terrain avoidance and always remain in VFR conditions...